Looks good! (Damn 20 chars) Can this be installed server side? Ifne: Can this be installed server side? Yes, you flow ... for those who want to put this map server map, I compacted it in a resource, I do not create it for the manufacture of this map, I just made a feature! (It was too big to upload directly, so here's a Google Drive link) Read to read me! 9 Likes excellent service, thank you for your time 1 as not to put in my game yet, but it seems amazing Freeakin just going through the screen catches. This is the same civryan is using in the new community of Jeff Favignano, OCRP? I believe they have a similar, but no, it's not the same. If someone has any idea that they would like me to add to the map feel free to warn me. Thank you Bud! I'll add it to Github! Am I I or Is It Difficult to Read? You increase and it is not difficult to read. As I do to add your Ive Drum to the map folder to the rescue and added the beginning map to server.cfg no, this is not. I do not know if we're going to release ours or not. But there seems to be a lot of them around here. Here's the source if you want to make your own! 1 As [launch] Street names modified with numbers postal communicates, except scripts for some scripts as he said he made his own, but When you pay for someone to do this for your server and only yours do not want it to be leaked, but the postolian dumps for DOJ were made by a member in his free time that the officers did not have to Trying to try the street coating names and just postcard dispatch gave or when there is a traffic stop dispatch knows a place relativna not only former US $ 68 facing the North Route, but ex of it Route 68 Northbound by postcard ... Confused about why this is needed. What is the difference between yours and this? This also goes through how to avoid inaccuracy when zooming down. Confused? You realize that the fan that you have attached is a different style map. If you just do not want the map to continue rolling, I'm not trying to benefit anything from it just putting resources out for people to use. 5 Tanned course! I think I'm just confused as what I also bound used to refer to the Dieilkekane website that showed several variations of the original images. This site disturbs me ... Please do not get any ideas 3 fanned from the next page à € 'FIVEM Development of resources and modding discussion If someone could want them to combine the map of HD 4K pause menus, street name map and this map [launching] Map (pusinho) releases is impossible how do you play then?
